

You're Invited to join us!!!

30th Annual Convention

of

The Fellowship of Catholic Scholars

to be held

September 28 - 30, 2007

at the

Renaissance, Washington DC Hotel

“The Idea of
The Catholic University For the 21st Century”

Most Reverend Donald W. Wuerl, S.T.D. Archbishop of Washington will be the principal celebrant and homilist for Mass on Saturday morning and he will deliver a plenary address on the convention theme.

Topics and Presenters include

■ Cardinal Newman and the Idea of the University

John Crosby, Ph.D. , Franciscan University of Steubenville
Karl Schmude, Australia

■ The State of the Question: Various Models now in use

Fr. John Piderit, S.J. Bronx, NY
Dr. Melanie Morey, Newton, MA
Fr. David O'Connell, President, Catholic University of America

■ Plenary address by Archbishop Wuerl on the Convention theme

■ Catholic Studies Programs at Catholic Universities

Robert F. Gotcher, Ph.D., Sacred Heart School of Theology, Hales Corner, WI
Sr. Paula Jean Miller, F.S.E. University of St, Thomas, Houston, TX
John Cavadini, Ph.D., University of Notre Dame

■ The Engagement of Catholic Universities with Secular Culture

Christopher Wolfe, Marquette University
Michael Aeschliman, Boston University

■ Catholic Education at Non-Catholic Universities

Msgr. Stuart Swetland, Mt. St. Mary Seminary, Emmitsburg, MD
Robert L. Wilken, Ph.D. University of Virginia

Host Hotel:

Renaissance Washington, DC Hotel
999 9th St. NW, Washington, DC 20001
Phone: 202-898-9000

Convention

Begins: Friday at 1:30 PM
Ends: Sunday at 11:30AM

More info is available at:

Web: www.CatholicScholars.org
Phone: 239-595-1813
E-mail: jrook@CatholicScholars.org